

Cornell Farmworker Program

Extension Resources

Cornell University
Cornell Farmworker Program

The Cornell Farmworker Program (CFP) conducts on-farm workshops on immigrant rights and emergency planning.

Emergency Planning workshop topics include:

- Discussions of state and federal regulations as they relate to farmworkers.

- Spanish language skits that provide information about ways to respond if detained by a law enforcement officials.

- Assistance for parents who wish to assign guardianship for their children.

- Overview of the purpose and process for assigning power of attorney.

- Role playing exercises about how to respond to emergencies such as a car accident, farm accident, or an immigration detention.

- Information on health, education, legal, and other services.

For more information and to schedule a workshop contact:

Mary Jo Dudley, Director

Cornell Farmworker Program

Phone: 607-254-5194

Fax: 607-255-9710

Email: farmworkers@cornell.edu

www.farmworkers.cornell.edu

Fee schedule is negotiated according to number of workshop participants.

The following Cornell Farmworker Program educational materials can be found online at www.farmworkers.cornell.edu

CFP conducts workshops and offers educational materials on NYS driving laws.

Educational materials in English and Spanish can be downloaded from the website and are also available on cd.

“Derechos de los Inmigrantes”

Spanish language skits on dvd with practical information about ways to respond if detained by a law enforcement official.

THE CORNELL FARMWORKER PROGRAM offers a statewide directory of resources for migrants, farmworkers and immigrants organized by county and by service.

The directory includes information including: if transportation is provided; availability of translators; general fees; and documents required to access services.

Services:

- Housing
- Banking
- Cultural Adaptation
- Legal Services
- Labor Rights
- Migrant Education
- English as a Second Language
- Job Training
- Safety
- Migrant Health

This information can be found online in our searchable database.

On-farm educational programs on Chemical Safety and Health on Dairy Farms in Spanish and English

To schedule a workshop, contact:

Mary Jo Dudley at (607) 254-5194 or farmworkers@cornell.edu