Can’t attend this workshop in Geneva?

Attend our other workshops on this topic at either—

NAVIGATING THROUGH THE AG LABOR MAZE
Friday January 19th at the NOFA NY Winter Conference in Saratoga Springs: Learn how to build better farmer and worker relations within existing realities and legal structures. Learn how to establish meaningful communications across cultures and then how to go beyond traditional hierarchies to resilient relational farming through relationships of respect, cooperation, and the benefits that accrue from that.

IMPROVING COMMUNICATION WITH LATINO FARM EMPLOYEES
Tuesday February 20th at the Eastern NY Commercial Horticulture Program’s Winter Fruit and Vegetable school in Albany: Introduction to resources developed by the Cornell Farmworker Program to assist growers in communicating with Latino farmworkers. Includes practical tools for explaining employment issues like paychecks, housing, health care and workman’s comp.

Scholarships for Veterans and Grants for Beginning Farmers!

The Cornell Small Farms Program has funding from NYS to provide scholarships for NYS Veterans to attend this program. To learn more about this opportunity, and determine if you are eligible for a scholarship, please contact Kat McCarthy at kmm485@cornell.edu or (607) 255-9911. The CSFP also has grants for beginning farmers to receive 1:1 technical assistance in Human Resources. Beginning farmers attending these trainings are eligible to apply.

Sign up for Ag Labor Management Resources from CCE

In addition to these workshops we will provide trainings, presentations, webinars, and additional information and resources to help farm employers and managers improve their skills.

Find us on Facebook
facebook.com/CCEAgLabor

Sign up for our free E-newsletter, AgLabor Management eNews at http://eepurl.com/cZ0pSv

This material is based upon work supported by USDA/NIFA under Award Number 2011-68000-24225.

Good to Great
Navigating the Ag Labor Maze
December 7, 11:30-4:00, Geneva, NY

Do you hire, or are considering hiring, migrant or foreign-born labor?

Do you want to improve your skills in supervising employees who come from different cultures, especially workers from Mexico and Central America?

- This workshop is for you!

Can’t attend this workshop in Geneva?

Attend our other workshops on this topic at either—

NAVIGATING THROUGH THE AG LABOR MAZE
Friday January 19th at the NOFA NY Winter Conference in Saratoga Springs: Learn how to build better farmer and worker relations within existing realities and legal structures. Learn how to establish meaningful communications across cultures and then how to go beyond traditional hierarchies to resilient relational farming through relationships of respect, cooperation, and the benefits that accrue from that.

IMPROVING COMMUNICATION WITH LATINO FARM EMPLOYEES
Tuesday February 20th at the Eastern NY Commercial Horticulture Program’s Winter Fruit and Vegetable school in Albany: Introduction to resources developed by the Cornell Farmworker Program to assist growers in communicating with Latino farmworkers. Includes practical tools for explaining employment issues like paychecks, housing, health care and workman’s comp.
This workshop is $20  To register online:

https://reg.cce.cornell.edu/LaborMaze_232

Program
11:30—12:00  Registration
12:00—4:00  Program

Tips and tools for employers of foreign born agricultural workers. Learn how to build better relations between farmers and workers and how to establish meaningful communication across cultures and language barriers. Presenters will address how to create positive workplaces and reduce communication and culturally-based misunderstandings. Also covered is access to health services, opportunities for English language learning, and tips for worker and employer emergency preparedness.

4:00-5:00 pm—optional informal discussion about navigating the H2-A program.

Registration Form—send with a check made out to CCE Ontario County or complete the credit card information

Name: ____________________________________________

Farm Name: ____________________________________________

Address: ____________________________________________

City/State/Zip: ____________________________________________

Phone: ____________________________________________

Email address: ____________________________________________

Additional Attendees Names: ____________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

Total Registrations __________  x $20 each  __________

Total ____________________________________________

Credit Card Payment Information

Type of card (check one):  Visa ___  Master Card ___

Expiration date:  Month ___  Year ___

Amount to be charged: __________________________

Name as it appears on card: ____________________________________________

Signature (required): ____________________________________________

Mail this completed form and payment information to CCE Ontario County, 480 North Main Street, Canandaigua, NY 14424

Questions? Contact Mary Jo Dudley, Farmworkers@cornell.edu or (607) 254-5194

Cornell University provides equal program and employment opportunities.