Cornell Farmworker Program Summer internship 2020
Addressing the Needs of Immigrant Farmworkers in NYS

Internship research topics may include:

- Research to assess farmworker needs
- Participating in on-farm workshops including: Support for immigrant families, English tutoring, and improved workplace communications
- Updating farmworker services directory
- Examining farmworker perspectives on labor issues
- Developing educational materials for farmworkers

TO APPLY for an INTERNSHIP:

- Send an email to Mary Jo Dudley, Director of the Cornell Farmworker Program (farmworkers@cornell.edu), with times and dates you are available to meet to discuss internship opportunities. Bring resume and official transcript to this meeting.

Application materials include:

1) Resume (including name, local and home address, telephone number, and email address)

2) Cover letter outlining:
   - Skills and strengths you will bring to the internship program
   - Proposed learning goals

3) Three letters of recommendation using the CFP recommendation form mailed directly to farmworkers@cornell.edu.

4) A hard copy of your official transcript.

Submit CFP internship application materials by February 4, 2020 to:

Mary Jo Dudley
Director, Cornell Farmworker Program
Department of Development Sociology
275 Warren Hall
Cornell University
Ithaca, NY 14853
(607) 254-5194
farmworkers@cornell.edu